The School has a further requirement for a CIA speaker to present the following topic to the Military Intelligence Officer Career Course students as indicated:

✓ a. SUBJECT: Subversive Activities in the Far East and Southeast Asia.

Date & Time: 22 January 1963, 1010-1145 hours, Class 63-A-1

Suggested Speaker:

25X1A

Scope: Background of communist activity in Far East and Southeast Asia. The character of the Sino-Soviet empire offensive in the area. Current trends and future implications.

As usual, a portion of each lecture period will be reserved for a question and answer session. Students of the Intelligence Staff Officer (Special) Course, 63-QA-1 and QA-2, will be cleared for information classified SECRET. Security clearance for students of the Military Intelligence Officer Career Course is TOP SECRET.

If you find it impracticable to provide official transportation for the speakers, it would be appreciated if you would contact our Coordination and Scheduling Branch, Office of the Director of Instruction (Telephone MEDford 3-9000, Ext 2221 or 4181) and appropriate arrangements will be effected.

It is hoped that this request will be favorably considered and that the speakers designated will plan to have lunch with representatives of the Staff and Faculty on the date of their respective presentations.

Sincerely,

LAURENCE C. BROWN
Colonel, Infantry
Assistant Commandant
